This Ad. is Intended to Interest People Who Live Right in Town and Want to Continue Doing So

The lots below are large enough for a home but not suitable for small truck farms or chicken ranches. There are a lot of people who do not care for an extra large lot, and others who will not have any other kind, and these lots are very suitable for the person who will sacrifice space for the convenience of being right in the very center of the city, where you can get to your office or any part of the shopping district in five minutes after you step off your front porch. Rain or shine, summer and winter you have pavement every foot of the distance, and furthermore you have police and fire protection that you would not have if you lived outside.

Here They Are, Look Them Over. You May Find Just the Size Lot You Want. They Are All Located in and Around the High School Block.

COMMISSIONER'S NOTICE.

The Cumberland Hydraulic Cement & Manufacturing Company, V. S. IN CHANCERY.

In pursuance of a decree entered in the Circuit Court of Harrison County, West Virginia, in the above styled cause on the 27th day of May, 1916, the same was referred to the undersigned commissioner to take, state and report the following:

1. All the real estate owned by the defendant, Lester Banks, its location and the probable value thereof;
2. The liens thereon, in whom owed and their amount and the priorities;
3. And whether or not the rents and profits of said real estate will be sufficient in five years to pay off and discharge said liens; and
4. To report upon any and all other matters that may be required by any part in interest, the same being pertinent, or that said commissioner may deem pertinent.

All the above named parties and all others interested will take notice that the undersigned commissioner will, ON THE 5TH DAY OF JULY, 1916, proceed to execute said order of reference at his office, 322-323 Goff Building, Clarksburg, West Virginia.

Given under my hand this 2nd day of June, 1916. LAFAYETTE C. CRILE, Commissioner.

Notice to Lien Holders.
To all persons holding liens by judgment or otherwise, on the real estate, or any part thereof, of Lester Banks:
In pursuance of a decree of the Circuit Court of Harrison County, West Virginia, made in the cause there pending to subject the real estate of the said Lester Banks to the satisfaction of the liens thereon, you are hereby required to present all claims held by you and each of you against the said Lester Banks, which are liens on his real estate, or any part of it, for adjudication to me, at my office in the City of Clarksburg, Harrison County, West Virginia, on or before the 5th day of July, 1916.
